

GuardHome Limited Selected as Finalist in 2010 ESSEX Business Excellence

Awards – Customer Service and Care Category

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release: 16th July 2010

Old Harlow based Security Company GuardHome Limited are delighted to be selected as one of the finalists for the Customer Care and Service category for the ESSEX Business Excellence Awards. The awards dinner will be held at Braxted Park on the 23rd September when attending GuardHome employees will be crossing their fingers that their hard work at maintaining the highest standard of customer service will be formally recognised.

Eric Chorley MD of GuardHome when he heard of the announcement said, “This is one of the most sought after and important awards that can be conferred on a company. It does not reflect the work of an individual or a particular event it is awarded to companies that can demonstrate that they continually deliver exceptional customer service across the whole breadth of the business. If we should win this award it is because of the positive attitude of every single employee and also our supporting businesses who share our ethos and help us deliver the highest standards.”

GuardHome are no strangers to awards in this category, in 2005, a year after the business was formed they won the Harlow Business Award for Customer Service. GuardHome, offer a complete range of professional NSI accredited security services for the business and homeowner see their website www.guardhome.co.uk for further details.
