

Wish you were here?

Going away somewhere nice?

Dear Homeowner,

I love holidays, because when you are away I have a much more time when I break into your home. I can tell pretty quickly whether your home is occupied or not and most homes are so easy to get in, especially those without proper alarms.

I like to steal the things I can sell quickly, such as Jewellery, Cash, mobile phones, DVD's, cameras and laptops, but with enough time I can even take that TV off the wall. Laptops are easy to carry and sell, the chances are you will have hundreds of precious photos on your laptop that you'll never see again and never be able to replace. I can normally get a ton (£100) for a laptop. Them new iPhones, lovely, I can't get enough of them at the moment.

Everyone has something worth stealing, but sometimes I have to search a bit to find things, so I'll have a good look and leave a mess as I rummage through your personal belongings which will leave you feeling violated when you return. This feeling will last for ages and you will find sleeping difficult for a while afterwards.

Thanks for making it easy and sleep well, I might even visit tonight?

Robin Yurhome

If you have a professionally installed alarm your chances of being burgled are greatly reduced.

NSI Accredited
For people who take their security seriously

At Guardhome we specialise in installing only the highest quality wireless alarm systems. We carry out a comprehensive free of charge survey on your property to bring to your attention potential risk areas.

Because our systems are wireless the installation is quick, there is no mess and there is no need to lift carpets or hide cables. The alarms are easy to use and should the alarm be triggered it will telephone you to tell you.

Call GuardHome on 01279 324 837

www.guardhome.co.uk

www.guardhome.co.uk